Comments

“ I was one of Janiyah's therapists when she was at Levine's in the summer of 2015. I recently visited and learned of Janiyah's passing. I'm so sorry for the loss of this sweet angel. I will never forget her infectious laugh; and the memories of baking cookies and playing her favorite game at the time, Candy Land. That was my girl! She was truly a sweetheart and I know her spirit will live on forever in the hearts of everyone who met and loved her. May God bless you all as you continue to mourn your child. She will be with you always. Love, Dokota Wynn

“ I am so sorry for your loss I hope you can find peace at revelations 21 3&4 where it says with that I heard a loud voice from the throne say look the tent of is with mankind, and he himself will reside with them, and they will be his people. And god himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ So young she was...my heart goes out to the family. She could have shared her talents with the world. Please take to heart the beautiful promise from God's word at Isaiah 26:19: "Your dead will live .My corpses will rise up. Awake up and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." God has held out a promise that he will fulfill one day in the near future. Death was never his purpose and when his purpose is realized, life will be the solution. May you take comfort in God's promise and have a share in welcoming back your precious love one.
