

Albert Johnson

February 24, 1936 - February 4, 2015

Mr. Albert Johnson was born on February 24, 1936 in Rock Hill, South Carolina. He was the eldest son of the late Woodrow Johnson, Sr. and Nancy Gill Johnson. Albert was educated in the Charlotte Mecklenburg School System. Prior to retiring, Albert was employed by Johnson Landscaping, which was owned by his brother (Theodore Johnson). Albert was a hardworking man, who was a great father figure to many family members. He was quiet but a “straight to the point” type of man. Albert loved his family. He never said good bye only Yeah.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one child, one brother and two sisters.

Albert leaves to cherish his memories five children Don Albert Johnson, Quincy Johnson, Margaret Johnson, Earnest Johnson, and Rosetta Johnson. He has one sister Rosetta Andrews, and one brother Mr. Woodrow Johnson Jr. eleven grandchildren, thirty three great grandchildren, and five great great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
