

Alberta "Sue" Williams

December 19, 1942 - February 14, 2026

Alberta "Sue" Williams was born on December 19, 1942, in Fort Mill, South Carolina, to the late Albert and Ada Williams. She departed her earthly home on February 14, 2026, to enter her heavenly home. At a young age, her family relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina, where she was educated and graduated from Plato Price School in 1960. Alberta, for most of her life, was a homemaker due to health issues. She loved cooking, sewing, and being creative. She could make something out of nothing. She also enjoyed reading and writing. This passion led her to enter a writing contest, which she won, and her story was published in a book. Alberta also did volunteer work. She was a Teacher's Aid at First Ward Elementary School. She was also a member of the Charlotte Housing Appeals Board. Alberta was preceded in death by two sons: Eddie D. Williams and Dennis E. Williams, and a sister Neona Blackmon. Left to cherish her memories is one son, Terry Williams of Fairfield, OH. Two daughters: Cheryl Greene of Columbia, South Carolina, and Cassandra Lockett (Anthony) of Charlotte, North Carolina. One brother, Milas Williams (Pearlie) of Charlotte, NC. Three granddaughters: Chantaye Williamson (Rico), Shanna Posey (Darius), and Amiri Lockett. Six grandsons: Richard Williams, Randy Williams, Edrick Kiser, Genis Pegues, Corey, and Anthony Steele. Five great-grands, and one great-great-grand. Three Stepdaughters, Amanda Wallace, Beverly Byrum, and Deloris Wallace. A special cousin Diane Bell-Brice and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
