

Alma Gean Appling

January 16, 1932 - May 29, 2013

Mrs. Alma Gean Appling went home to be with the Lord and her love ones on Wednesday, May 29, 2013. She was born January 16, 1932 in Chesterfield County, South Carolina to the late James and Ola Mae Seegars of Pageland, South Carolina. She attended the public schools in Chesterfield county before moving to Charlotte, North Carolina where she worked for several years. She later moved to Washington, DC where she resided until 2003. She was a member of Saint Mary's Baptist Church in Washington, DC. Upon relocating back to Charlotte, she became a member of St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church and subsequently a member of Faith Memorial Church. Mrs. Appling was preceded in death by her husband the late Mr. Eugene Appling, her father and mother, three brothers, the late James Henry Seegars, Curtis Seegars and Eugene Seegars, Sr. and one sister Mrs. Bernice Lavigne. She leaves to cherish her fond memories three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Mungo of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Mrs. Lela Cureton and Ms. Elizabeth Seegars both of Charlotte, North Carolina, seventeen nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends.
