“ Heartfelt condolences and prayers of comfort, peace and strength to the White family. Alfonso's name was first mentioned over 60 years ago, when my dad, James A. Gabriel, and Alfonso worked together as truck drivers at Thomas & Howard Company. Trucking stories from dad were always a favorite with my five other siblings and me. Black drivers were paid so much less than white drivers; they had to load and unload their trucks, while white drivers had help. Christmas parties for the employees were segregated. Thomas & Howard held Christmas parties for their black drivers & spouses at The Excelsior Club on Beatties Ford Road. Years and decades past until I heard Alfonso's name again. He had married my beloved cousin, Harriet. Passionately called Al, you never saw his face without a smile and he was quite comical at times. Al was a great storyteller. My husband Mike and I were always amused of his stories.

As, sickness fell upon Al, he was still that same gentle and funny soul. He could always make a person laugh or smile. Through the years of attending the Crawford and Lela Donaldson Family Reunions, Al and Harriett were pertinent in the reunions' success. His smile and family loyalty will be sorely missed.
