

Anderson Murray

March 11, 1942 - July 26, 2024

Anderson Murray 82 of Charlotte, North Carolina was born to the late Thomas and Fannie Murray. He transitioned on Friday, July 26, 2024 at the Mecklenburg Health & Rehabilitation in Charlotte, North Carolina. He attended Second Ward High School and later embarked on a career in the beverage industry, working with notable companies such as Coca-Cola and Budweiser, before retiring due to disability. Anderson was known for his easy-going nature, quiet demeanor, and a protective attitude toward his family. He was known for his generosity, particularly in giving monetary gifts to his children and grandchildren on their birthdays. He maintained lifelong friendships, including those with the mothers of his children, a testament to his loyal and loving character. A fan of the Tar Heels and a regular viewer of "The Price is Right", Anderson found spiritual solace and community at New Jerusalem Trinity Church, where he occasionally worshiped alongside his son, and daughter-in-law, Datari and Berlinda. He attended Smithfield-White Rock Missionary Baptist Church with his sister and brother-in-law, Emma and Herman. Anderson found joy in the simpler pleasures of life. Anderson is preceded in death by his son; Reginald Murray, five sisters; Carrie Cade, Fannie Reel, Eva Shirley, Alice Murray, Georgia Little, two brothers; Andrew Murray, and Thomas Murray Jr. He is survived by his daughters: Geraldine Murray of Charlotte, NC and Elizabeth Milton of Dallas, NC; sons, Anthony Belk, Hatari Murray of Charlotte, NC, Datari Murray (Berlinda) of Stanley, NC, and Logan Milton of Charlotte, NC; one sister Emma J Jones (Herman) of Rock Hill, SC; two brothers, Bobby Joe Murray (Nancy), Darris Murray both of Charlotte, NC; nineteen grandchildren and twenty five great-grandchildren; brother-in-law, Roger Little of Greensboro, NC and host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
