

Andrew Wheeler

July 14, 1954 - April 14, 2024

Andrew Wheeler, born July 14, 1954- A gentle giant, known for his booming voice and irresistible smile, passed away on April 14, 2024 to his eternal resting. Andrew was a dedicated employee of formerly BFI Waste Management (Allied Waste Management) for many productive years as a sanitation truck driver until his health began to decline. Andrew had an easy going manner that was easily shown in his character. Andrew could be funny and serious instantly, depending on the series of events. It may be in general conversation or just in passing Andrew would always leave something special just as a kind reminder. Andrew loved life and enjoyed it to the fullest extent, but also never neglectful in his no nonsense approach to handling his business. Andrew loved his family and would often make his way to the the big family cookouts where he would come to share in the fun and fellowship. Andrew will be greatly missed by his family, his friends and others who lives he touched. Andrew was preceded in death by parents; John W. Wheeler, Maggie R. Wheeler, brothers; Martin L. Wheeler, Bennie Wheeler, sisters; Mattie Wheeler, Diane Wheeler. Andrew leaves to cherish in his memory; sisters, Joanne Wheeler, Beatrice Wheeler, brother, John(Snooty) Wheeler, nephew, Rodney Steele, nieces, Angela Wheeler Neal, Maggie Wheeler, as well as a host of other nieces, nephews, and close family friends
