

Annie Smith

January 30, 1941 - March 13, 2017

Annie E. Smith was the youngest daughter born to the late Hazel Bouges and Mary Lee Bowman on January 30, 1941, in Walterboro, South Carolina. She attended the public schools of Colleton County, South Carolina. Upon graduation, she moved to New York City, where she later met and married Charles Anthony Smith. To this union, one son was born, Scott Bernard Smith. She entered into eternal rest on March 13, 2017.

In New York, she worked her way up to a Computer Operator at Halcon Scientific Design for 30 years until they closed their doors in the late 1980's. She returned home to the south where she resided in Goose Creek, South Carolina and was employed by Santee Cooper. She later moved to Charlotte, North Carolina where she was employed by First Union/Wachovia and retired in May of 2003 after many years of dedicated service in Information Technology.

While in Charlotte, she joined Friendship Missionary Church and was active in the Seniors' Ministry; Women's New Perspective Ministry; S.E.R.V.E. Ministry; C.R.O.S.S. Ministry; and the Empowered Disciples Sunday School class.

She was preceded in death by her nephew, Jason Michael Felix, and sister, Frances Bouges Sweat.

“ Life is a wonderful gift from God. I am sure Annie had a good life and enjoyed it with all her accomplishments in life. However Jesus said I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life.---John 11:25
