“ Everyday i think about you and i can believe that you is not here with me . every Sunday i be looking for you to come over so we can play and if you to fight me and cry behind me. I'm hurting so bad because God took my baby from me , you with me but you not with me the way i want you to be. I'm mad at myself because it was nothing that i could have done to keep you here with me . I'm upset cause i cant look you in your5 eyes and i can hear you say your favorite line . "YOU BEAT !" . I miss you so much A.J

“ Deepest deepest deepest sympathy goes out to little Jaidens family during their time of bereavement . Little Jaiden is now an inhabitant of the paradise. From God we come, to him we belong, and unto him we shall return . When someone passes away it is decided by God if we are going to paradise. Little Jaiden was without sin. I know that you want your baby back but he doesn't have to worry about anything , he is truly at peace. He is definitely going to the paradise. All praises are due to God in all circumstances. Jaiden was so special that God chose him, showed him.favor, and blessed him with heaven! Now its us who have to strive and make it there.

“ *I can not say that I feel what you are going through. Death in a family is very hard to deal with and even harder when it's a child. I am so very sorry for the loss of your child and grandchild just know that his spirit will always be around you. When you hear his laughter it's him playing at God's feet, when you catch a peek of him running it's him playing in God's garden.
He will be sorely missed but he will always be with you in spirit.*
