“ AJ,

I could never forget you. James Martin Middle School... your smile was so contagious and it lit up the room. Your spirit was so beautiful and regardless of the adversity, you never stopped smiling. I know you're with God now and your soul is resting. Continue to watch over your family and loved ones. ❤️

Your classmate

“ Baby Brother I miss you like crazy it's sooo hard everyday trying to not think about you but I can't I miss your voice, your big hugs, and your spirit you were sooo strong and went through so much in life and I no God took one of his best so I want question why just no we all miss you and your nieces and nephews do to. You have always had my back you was my little big brother and would buss anybody head if you had too I no you was tired and now resting in peace shining over us in heaven God knew what he was doing and I just thank him for all of the memories and time I got to spend with u. You was so smart and loved God's creations and you told me God has a higher calling for you so I love you baby so deeply and you are truly one of a kind, and truly missed. So rest easy in heaven baby from this cold world I hate you didn't have a chance to leave your legacy behind
