

Betty Sherrill McCorey

January 31, 1942 - March 14, 2021

Betty Sherrill McCorey, affectionately known as “Big Mama.” Ever since January 31, 1941 this world witnessed a very outspoken, took care of everybody, a shoulder to cry on, cooked like she had a restaurant, and a person you could share secrets with. Betty was a great mother, wife, sister, twin, grand mom, cousin, and friend anyone could have. She grew up in Charlotte, NC, and attended Torrence Lytle High School. Betty and her twin sister Barbara were the fourth born to their mother Jamie.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edward McCorey; sisters, Barbara James and Virginia Sherrill; brothers, Robert Sherrill and Richard Sherrill.

Betty leaves to cherish her legacy a devoted son, Terry Connor (Tonya); Lula Jones; Ernest Grier (Paula); Ed McCorey (Mimi); Terry Connor, Jr.; Evett Connor; Paris Jones; favorite granddaughter, Acaré Connor, Tristen and Phoenix Goforth; great-grandson, Kaedan Simmons; sisters, Helen McKissick and Annie Myers; brothers, Harold Sherrill (Diane), Charlie Sherrill (Phyllis); brothers-in-law, Frank McCorey (Mary), Paul Grier; special family, Anthony and Randolyn Davis; special friends, Jerry’s Father; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews.