

Brenda Gee

May 18, 1985 - April 4, 2013

Brenda Gee, was and still is a loving mother, sister, daughter, granddaughter, best friend, friend, and God-daughter to everyone that knows her. She had lived a wonderful strong and dedicated life for her Heavenly Father, whom she has come to know over the 27 years on this earth. She loved singing in the Little Rock AME Zion Choir, dancing, socializing, played basketball, drawing and most of all giving God everything that was owed to him from her loving and caring heart. She graduated from the first class of E.E. Waddell in 2003. Where she met her best friend Rachel and developed her talents as an artist and a basketball player. She would not let anyone and anything destroy her. We thank God for her family and friends that was there during her hard times. We especially give God the highest praise for healing her which was in his time not ours. Brenda sunrise was on May 18, 1985 and sunset was on April 4, 2013. She has left behind for everyone to cherish, love and look out for a special gift from God through her, Antwan Christopher Moore. They built a loving relationship in 3 great years that will never be forgotten. She also leaves her Grandparents William and Rosa Mae Moore, her mother Eddie Mae Gee, her sister Sarah Gee (Henry), her nieces Ciara and Cynia Moore, Uncle Alphonzo Gee (Latricia Mcilwain and DeMarcus Kelley), Aunt Carolyn Linda Gee-Cowans (Walter, Damareo, and Travis Alexander) of Charlotte, several God-Mothers, faithful Friends, cousins, and a host of other family members.

We thank everyone who has come to show respects and care and to help celebrate the life of Brenda. She is smiling and thankful for everyone coming together and showing her tremendous amounts of love. She wants everyone to know that she loves all of you and to stand and give it to God and let him fight your battles.
