

Bryan Xavier Johnson

March 21, 1986 - July 26, 2024

Bryan Xavier Johnson was born on March 21, 1986 in the city of Charlotte North Carolina, where he made his home. Bryan, who was also known as “Boss of Da City” was loved and cherished by many for his outgoing, comedic, “life of the party” personality. Bryan worked as a Pool technician but was an entrepreneur at his core. He was the owner of “Klass Clothing” clothing line, owned and operated a trucking company, starred in his first movie titled “1st Day Out”, and was a popular local Rap artist known as “Boss of Da City”. Most importantly, Bryan was a family man. Spending time with his wife and 4 children vacationing, being heavily involved in his children’s sports activities and attending Family Functions fulfilled him. Bryan knew and loved the Lord. While his time on earth was short, his destiny was fulfilled. He leaves behind to cherish his memories: Wife Ashley S Johnson; three daughters, Zoey Johnson (16), Brooke Johnson (9), Nyla Johnson (4); one son, Bryan “Xavier” Johnson Jr (8); His Mother, Janice Johnson; His Father, Norwood Walker; Four Brothers, Demonte “Ques” Johnson, Brandon Johnson, Terrance “Stephan” Johnson, Jeremy Johnson (Keondra); Three sisters, Vontina McGrant (Jonathan), Shamika Taylor, Shameka Williams; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, as well as his North Charlotte family.
