“ Mr. Brian, you will truly be missed. Thank you for loving me like your own every time I came over for piano lessons. You always made sure I had a snack if mama T hadn't made there yet and that I was doing good in school. You definitely made an impact in my life, even if you didn't know it ❤️ Rest well sir ❤️🕊️

“ What a great husband and family man! You always allowed Teresa to travel with us during your wedding anniversary. Sometimes it was hilarious because it seemed you were kicking everyone out of the house. But you always took the time to celebrate with "T" once we were off the road. Thank you again for always sharing your family with us to uplift others through music. Ntimemusic.com, Inc.

“ I am so appreciative of the times I spent with Uncle Bryan. He treated me like his very own niece. Whenever I was around him, he kept me laughing. I enjoyed asking him questions as he was in the kitchen cleaning and frying fish (before I found out about my allergy) and making other great meals. I just wanted to learn. He will be missed, but I know he is in a much much better place and is at peace. My family and I will continue praying for everyone. We love you all.

“ Oh what a character my dear brother ‘T’ was!! He was my best bud on our Japan journey!!! Will never forget when a group of us decided to travel into Tokyo and rode the trains for the first time! Now we Americans are much more talkative than the Japanese. And halfway there on the train, T remembered his in processing brief about proper customs/courtesies on the train!! So he began trying to get 10 of us to shut our mouth. After telling us repeatedly (probably 25 times), he finally had enough and with his tall self and deep voice yelled “you _____s from Yokota need to shut your mouths and quit acting like Americans on this train”. Now he was the tallest person on the entire train and I think his deep voice scared the heck out of everyone, including every Japanese riders, on this train! All at the same time, every head turned toward him and every mouth shut and you could hear a pin drop!! After about 1 minute, T busted out laughing and whispered “That is the first time you _____s ever did what I said. I like being the damn boss”!! We all cracked up and I think the other riders thought we were all crazy! He was one of the funniest, caring, protective and supportive friends I have ever had!! He talked about his family all the time and he would just be beaming!!!

“ I miss you my friend, my buddy. We met on a jobsite in Dec 1997 and it felt like we had known each other for years. During the time that we worked together, I don't believe there was a jobsite that we didn't work at together. Even when I left the company, we still remained friends. You and your family welcomed me with opened arms and I'm forever grateful. You all even let me live with you for a short period time. I remember your love for cooking and I always enjoyed your meals. I know that we didn't see each other much over the last few years but we would talk on the phone from time to time. Your health started declining more and more but I know you're in a better place and I will always remember the times we did see each other. Rest on my friend and I'll see you on the other side one day. Love always, Miriam.
