

Deacon Byrd R. Jamerson Sr.

January 26, 1923 - July 17, 2013

Deacon Byrd R. Jamerson Sr., son of the late Deacon Monroe Jameson and Mollie Byrd Jameson, was born on January 26, 1923 in Easley (Pickens County), South Carolina. He departed this life to be with the Lord on Wednesday July 17, 2013. Deacon Jamerson joined Piney Grove Baptist Church in Dacusville, S.C. at an early age. He moved to Charlotte, N.C. in 1945 and joined the Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. He immediately went to work by joining the Senior Choir. He was a Sunday School teacher and led Vacation Bible School. He was the Superintendent of the Sunday School Department for over 26 years. In 1950 he was appointed and ordained as a Deacon. He served as Chairman of the Deacon Board for over 15 years. His leadership was invaluable during the relocation of Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist Church from the former location at E. Seventh St. to the current location on West Blvd. In 1975 he volunteered to be the supervisor of the Young Adult Choir. He also served as the deacon assigned to the Youth Department until his health began to fail. He was an active participant and supporter of the Mecklenburg General Baptist Association and the Mecklenburg Sunday School Teacher Union. Deacon Jamerson was one of the early recipients of the Greater Mt. Sinai Baptist Church - Man of the Year Award. In 2004 he was recognized as Deacon Emeritus. Deacon Jamerson retired from ICI America as a supervisor after 35 years of service. His hobbies were storytelling, gardening, watching baseball and enjoying the company of friends and family. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 56 years Susie Maude Adams, two sons Byrd Jameson Jr. and Fredrick Douglas Jamerson. Deacon Jamerson is survived by one daughter Betty Jamerson Young, three sons; Miller Jamerson (Carla), George Jameson and Johnny Jameson, one daughter-in-law Yvonne Jameson, one sister Maude Jamison Bennett, brother-in-law Brock Adams, Marietta, S.C. and sister-in-law Edith Adams Mitchell, Dayton, Ohio and a host of grand, great-grand and great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
