“ Cary was my uncle he was one of the sweetest person I have known. He was always kind and generous doors always open to his family and friends as well, he never met any strangers always greeted you with a smile. When hen lived in Anderson we saw him everyday but he moved to Charlotte after my mom his sister passed and everyday went to every once in awhile but the love never changed still there. I will truely miss my uncle but I also know that God had better plans for him . I love you Cary and I love you enough to let you go .Take your wings and wear them proudly. May the lord our God continue to be with the family my family.
