

Catherine Cunningham Edmonds

February 13, 1945 - January 13, 2026

Catherine Marie Cunningham Edmonds was born on February 13, 1945, to Father Mayo Cunningham and Mother Ida Mae Cunningham. She was the youngest of five children and grew up in Charlotte, NC. A graduate of West Charlotte High School in 1963, Catherine pursued her dreams in business at Durham Business College before moving to Portsmouth, Virginia, where she met her beloved husband, Weston Lewis Edmonds Sr. They eventually returned to Charlotte, NC, and were married in September 1983. Catherine dedicated many years of her life working at First Union Bank, now Wells Fargo, retiring in 2010. She was a joyful soul who loved to celebrate life—throwing parties, hosting family gatherings, and sharing special moments with loved ones. Her passions included swimming, taking girls trips, cooking, and cheerfully rooting for her Dallas Cowboys. Catherine, a devoted wife, relished taking care of their numerous dogs, affectionately known as “Best.” An elegant woman, she never hesitated to embrace a good laugh. Her warmth and zest for life had a profound impact on everyone around her. She leaves to cherish her devoted Husband Weston Louis Edmonds Sr. and her bonus Stepson Weston L. Edmonds Jr. Her sister Shirley C. Lee, and her nieces Patricia Evans, Denise Lee, Brenda Miller, Laurantice “Tony” McCollough, Angela Able, Monica Bradley, Veronica Rayford and Cynthia Wadley Nephews- James M. McNeely, Thomas Coleman Jr. and a host of great nieces and nephews and cousins to cherish her memories.

Receiving her would be her Mother and Father Mayo and Ida Mae
