

Catherine Garvin

February 6, 1927 - May 8, 2023

Catherine Brown Garvin daughter of the late James Dudley and Magaline Brown was born February 6, 1927 in Spray, North Carolina. She departed her life on May 8, 2023 and she lived a full life and enjoyed living in the Grier Height Community for over 60 years.

Catherine confessed Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at Morning Star Baptists Church in Eden, North Carolina and she has trusted God her entire life. She later became a member of the Grier Heights Presbyterian Church when she relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina and was a faithful member for over 60 years. Her favorite saying was, "God is good all the time!" Catherine worked various jobs and she worked as a Domestic worker majority of her life. Her employer and their extended families loved her and continued to visit her after she retired to ensure she was doing very well.

Catherine had a variety of interests and enjoyed friends, flowers, dancing, and music. Catherine favorite musicians were Shirley Caesar, James Cleveland, and her favorite song to dance to "You Can Ring My Bell". She was well known in the community and she loved to walk through neighborhoods regularly to visit her friends. She loved and cherished her children and she was very proud of them and their accomplishments.

Catherine was preceded in death by her late husband Porte A. Garvin, two sons, James Garvin and John Garvin.

The Lord called Catherine home and she was ready to rest.

She leaves to cherish her memories and four loving daughters, Glenda Smith

(Patterson, New Jersey), Daisy McQueary, Johnny, Janice Smith, Antoinette Dixon, Kathy Hayes, one son Michael Garvin all of Charlotte, NC. One sister Rachel Mickey (Baltimore, Maryland) she also leaves a special friend George Bolden as well as a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren. A host of nieces and nephews and other extended family members.
