“ Weeping endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
How does one get from the mourning to the morning? It's as simple as removing the "U" Your family will be in my prayers.

“ I know you will hear plenty of people tell you that they are sorry for your lost, so I don't want to say that. What I do want to say is that he was a very good friend to me. He made me laugh and always had my back. My last semester at Central Piedmont we didn't have class together but he made sure I went to class. He always asked about my son and never let me forget why I made myself go to school every day.

When I learned of his death it hit me hard. I never would have guessed his life to end in such a way. He didn't deserve to be ripped from the arms of all of his family and friends. He was so full of life and it just goes to show just how short life is. Here one minute and gone the next.

Love you forever Chance. I will never forget you and everything you've done for me. I know you are looking over your family now but don't forget about me and Xylin too... lol

“ To the Pate family,
May GOD keep you surrounded by his army of angels as you mourn the loss of your son/brother. I pray that GOD places peace, strength and serenity in your lives during this time of loss. Please understand that you now have one of the best angels watching over you from above. This road has not and will not be easy, but it will get better in time.

Thank you for raising such a respectful, friendly and talented gentleman. The way that Chance graced his presence in everyone's lives speaks and will forever demonstrate the strong family that he had behind him throughout his life.

I met Chance on two separate occasions but I feel like he has been a life-long friend because of how highly Kevin has spoken about him since meeting and also having the opportunity in working with him. I was always amazed at how positive and how full of life he was at his age. Kevin is so grateful in having had Chance in his life for the time that GOD allowed. He has left an everlasting impression in his heart and our family will never let his memory or his dreams die.

If you are in need of ANYTHING, please feel free to contact us. May GOD continue to bless your family and may you forever be surrounded by the love and support that you instilled in Chance. We will continue to keep you in our prayers.

“ Kevin and Shawnette Pate:
Our hearts were devastated by receiving the unpleasant news about Chance. I spoke with Pastor Davis and asked if there was anything Heather and I can do. There is no sorrow that God can not heal. You two continue to trust God and He will see you through.

“ We are writing to extend our deepest sympathies to you and your family. We are very sad to hear about Chance, he was such a wonderful and friendly young man.
We had the honor and the pleasure to know your son/brother and we are very sorry to hear about his passing away. We had the greatest respect for Chance and will miss his friendly and upbeat personality.
Please let us know whether there is anything we can do to help during this difficult time. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. God bless you and your family.
