“ Happy 41st Birthday. Thank you for being the best dad ever in the 8 years you have been in my life, And i couldn't ask you to be a better dad, Nor could i ever wish to have another dad. No one could ever replace you. It has been 4 years going on 5 years without you, And at first, i was greatly and utterly sad and depressed and never thought that i would ever get through with this death. But i know that you would love to see me thrive, Move on, And be happy, Not cry. And that i did. Thrived mentally, Greatly thrived academically, Etc, and improved everything. And i really hope that I'm making you proud right now. I really hope that you're with my grandfather, Smiling down at me, And being proud at me. It was just very unexpected. You were so young, And i thought that you would see me excel, graduate, and become a very fine young woman, As you would want me to be. I think that you would still do that, Just not physically. You were supposed to see me and my siblings the next day, That Sunday... Now, Once again i am thriving, I still think of you alot, But i don't cry anymore suprisingly. But i wish you were here. You were a very respected man, A goofy man lol, And you were my favorite person in the world.

I hope you watch over me and my mother, And my siblings, And make sure we will be okay. I hope you watch over me and see me grow into an wonderful woman.

Once again, Happy Heavenly Birthday ❤️🙏.

I will forever love and miss you.
