August 13, 1952 - June 19, 2020

The Honorable Charles V. Montgomery

Mr. Charles V. Montgomery, 67 of Charlotte, NC, was born on August 13, 1952 to the late Willie Montgomery, Jr. and Loreen Hamrick Montgomery. He was called home from his labor on June 19, 2020 at Atrium Health Hospital. Charles, affectionately known as “Vincent,” attended West Charlotte High School and was employed as a Parks and Rec Manager. He then went on to become a Banquet Prep Server at the Ballantyne Resort. As a young boy he loved to cook and would try baking cakes and other dishes. He became a very good cook!

Vincent loved life, family, and friends. He did not meet a stranger, always smiling, friendly, and willing to help others in any way he could. Vincent loved sport and working out at the gym. He spent numerous hours in the gym lifting weights, playing basketball, and spreading the gospel. He was a body builder and loved flexing his muscles.

Vincent confessed Christ as Lord as a young man. God gave him a vision to serve the homeless and spread the gospel of Jesus Christ. He became an ordained Minister and founder of the Everyday Word Ministry of Charlotte. He loved to share and tell of the goodness of JESUS! He was baptized at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church at an early age and was active under the leadership of Dr. Sheldon Shipman in Outreach Evangelistic Ministry, Bible Study, and Prison Ministry at Greenville Memorial AME Zion Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Willie and Loreen Montgomery; two brothers, Willie Montgomery (Betty) and Don Montgomery (Charlee); niece, Chandra Haywood; and adopted sister, Darlina Hamrick Carson.
