

Charles Edward Yarbrough Sr.

December 17, 1939 - December 25, 2025

Charles Edward Yarbrough was born on December 17, 1939, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late Mrs. Virginia Whiteside and Homer Yarbrough. He departed this life on Thursday, December 25, 2025, at his residence in Charlotte, North Carolina. Charles accepted Christ at an early age and remained steadfast in his faith throughout his life. He served faithfully as a deacon and trustee at Maranatha Christian Fellowship. He attended Thomas Edison School and East Tech High School and proudly served in the United States Army, receiving an honorable discharge after three years of service. Charles began his professional career as a housekeeping supervisor at Suburban Community Hospital, where he worked for two years. He later joined Alcoa Aluminum as a production worker, where he excelled and was accepted into the Millwright Apprenticeship Program. He became a certified Millwright and retired in 2005. Charles had a deep love for church and family. He also enjoyed bowling, shooting pool, traveling, and taking photographs. Charles was united in holy matrimony to Luvinia Yarbrough. He was a devoted father and helped nurture five children: Tia (deceased), Dwayne (deceased), Charles Edward Yarbrough Jr., Leanese Childress (Yarbrough), and Samuel Mcoo. He was preceded in death by his sister, Lizzie Mae Blackburn. He leaves to cherish his memory his sisters, Alice Jean Woods, Kay Linda Harris, and Gerlene Davis, along with his brother-in-law, Nathan Davis. He was blessed with a host of grandchildren: Ronald Yarbrough (Wentz), Donzale Childress, Radeshia Childress, Danielle Childress, and Jonathan Yarbrough Jr.

(deceased). He also leaves to cherish his memory a host of great-grandchildren: Jayden Wentz, Jamear Wentz, Nevaeh Childress, Isaiah Jones, Zayn Wentz, Jonathan Yarbrough Jr., Grayson Childress, and Kaylee Campbell. Charles's love, faith, and devotion to family will forever be remembered and cherished by all who knew him.
