

Cheryl Lynn Sink

September 10, 1960 - August 21, 2017

Cheryl Lynn Sink "Pooh," 56, was born September 10, 1960 in Youngstown, Ohio to Gladys Sink and Robert Taylor, who preceded her in death. She was raised by her loving Aunt Anne Sink. Cheryl graduated from North High School in 1979 and went on to graduate from the Pittsburgh Art Institute.

Cheryl worked for DEL MAR, Herf Jones, and LifeTouch for many years. She was passionate about preserving life through the lens of a camera. She loved playing Frisbee Golf, softball, and listening to music.

Cheryl, as she was so affectionately called, leaves to cherish her memories, Aunt Anne (Ohio); cousins Brenda Ennis, Nichelle Ennis, Lisa Ennis, Gladys Sink, Elliott "Chucky" Haines, (all of Columbus, Ohio), Eric Gray, (Houston, Texas); best Friends and caregivers Shonda Jones, Cassandra Belton, and Margie Howie; God-children Brent and Jade Jones, (all of Charlotte); Wilmer Bourn (whom she called "Dad"); and a host of friends.

“ We called her Pooh. She,was quiet and reservex at times. But her laughter was infectuous. She knew her Lord and leaned on Him throughout her life and especially during her illness. I will miss her. Our good times will have to sustain me till we see each other again.
