

Clarence Williams

March 10, 2013

Clarence L. Williams, born in Charlotte, North Carolina on February 15, 1945, the third of five boys to the late Ransom and Polly Williams. His strong sense of family and God was honed early in life and he was baptized at Second Calvary Baptist Church (Charlotte, NC). The family later transferred their membership to Mount Carmel Baptist Church. Clarence attended Biddleville Elementary School, Northwest Junior High School and graduated from West Charlotte Senior High School in 1963, where he excelled as a student and as an athlete in football and tennis. On Sunday, March 10, 2013 at 9:44 pm, Clarence passed peacefully from this life at the VA Medical Center in Salisbury, North Carolina. He was 68 years old. He was preceded in death by his mother and father, Polly and Ransom; and two brothers, Harold and Wendel. As he steps into the shadows of our memory, he leaves to mourn their loss his four children; Gregory Williams of Charlotte, Angela (Glen) Mockabee of Charlotte, Clarence Williams, Jr. of Charlotte and Nicole (Muncie) Young of Richmond, Virginia; two brothers, Donald (Jaqueline) Williams of Slidell, Louisiana and John (Yvonne) Williams of Virginia Beach, Virginia; four grandchildren, Patrick Mockabee, Dominick Mockabee, Franklin Young and Nicolas Young.
