“ Clyde and I grew up together in the same neighborhood, we were classmates, we were friends. During his last days he and I reconnected after many years. Clyde was very generous, always reaching out to others. He knew the Lord and realized that his time was nearing. he told me "Sib the doctors said that I want make it, but if it's God's will, His will will be done. Clyde talked about his scholl days a lot in his last days, and everytime one of our classmate would call him, he'd say "Sib" guest who called me, and i know it was your doing, but I enjoyed talking to them. Clyde told me a few weeks ago that he was geting his ducks in order. I know he did indeed get his ducks in order because he loved the Lord. On Wednesday at the hospital Clyde was not doing good at all, just laying there, and when it was time for me to leave, i was saying godby to Ann, and I patted Clyde hands and said "Alright Clyde I will see you tomorrow, and Ann said 'Oh Sib look he waving by to you. Something in my spirit alarmed me that it was indeed good by. Clyde I enjoyed and cherish our time togther, I realize you were suffering , but you always bounce back and stood up strong, but your time was near and you were tired, Sleep on and take your rest, we loved you, but Our heavenly Father loved you best.
