

Corey Lashawn Evans

April 23, 1980 - December 8, 2023

Corey LaShawn Evans was born on April 23, 1980 in Mount Vernon, NY to Samuel L. Evans and Tonnie L. Morgan. He attended primary and middle school in Mount Vernon, NY. In 1994, he and his family relocated to Charlotte, NC, where he earned a diploma through the Mecklenburg County school system. Corey attended Blessed Assurance Day Care for over twenty years and he was very fond of the staff and friends he met there. It was his home away from home. Corey was a gentle soul with an infectious laugh. He was known to crack a joke or two, mostly associated with food. Corey loved to eat, especially fried chicken and fish. If your food was good, Corey would let know it. An avid collector of matchbox cars, he loved the luxury ones, he could tell you the make of just about any car based upon his symbol. He was serious about his cars and did not want anyone to touch them. During his pastime he would strategically lay his cards out neatly across his bed while knelt down beside them while he played. He enjoyed old school music, dancing, wrestling WWF, crossword puzzles, and the Carolina Panthers. His favorite movies were Iron Man, Spider Man and Home Alone 1 and 2. Corey loved the Lord and was a worshipper. He often would let others know that he was praying for them. One of his favorite hymns was "Blessed Assurance". He was a member of The River Church. Corey is preceded in death by his parents, maternal and paternal grandparents, and grandmother, Remell Germany. He leaves a legacy of faith and love to brother, Rodney (Lon'Sha) Morgan; sisters, Jaleesa Lee, Zina Beth Thomas, and TaKesia Morgan; nieces, Morgan Moore, Skai'Lyn Bailey, and Charmie Hummel; nephew, Lennox Morgan.; aunts, Mary Morgan, Catherine (John) Patterson, and Annie Anderson; uncle, Jerome Lee; and a host of other family and special friends. On the evening of Friday, December 8, 2023, Corey's full and impactful life came to a close. His endearing spirit and loving heart will be a keepsake for all who love and knew him.
