“ My condolences to the Smith - Adams family. Cynthia and I came to know each other in middle school and went on to attend the same high school together. She used to make me laugh, and was always so serious about what she was conveying. In our early years, she was introduced to me as a neighborhood member of "The Pinecrest Girls." I hadn't seen her in a long time; however, I knew she grew into a lovely young lady over the years. Rest on "Cynt." May God bring you all peace, grace and comfort now and in the days to come.
