

Cynthia Walker Taylor

November 25, 1964 - February 2, 2014

"Sometimes it is hard to understand, why some things have to be, but in His wisdom God has planned beyond our power to see."

Mrs. Cynthia Walker Taylor was born to the late Ms. Marjorie Ann Walker on November 25, 1964 in Charlotte, NC.

The vines of her life were rooted in Charlotte, NC where she began her fellowship with Christ at an early age. She was educated in the public schools of Charlotte, NC.

She had been employed as a manager at Wendy's Restaurant until her failing health.

The joys and pleasures of her life were her love for her Savior and her love for her family.

Cynthia was a loving Wife, Mother and Grandmother. She was a warm, kind and loving person who won the hearts of many. She was well loved by everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. Cynthia loved to cook and bake. She was well known for her mouth watering carrot cakes.

She was known and will be remembered for her big heart and beautiful smile.

Cynthia lived for her daughters and her grand children and she will truly be missed.

On Sunday, February 2, 2014, God embraced Mrs. Cynthia Walker Canty Taylor in His arms and enfolded her in His love. She quietly departed this life in the afternoon hours at her home.

She was preceded in death by her brother Dwight Leake.

She leaves to cherish in loving memory, her husband Thomas Taylor, Jr.; two beautiful daughters Brandy Walker (Edward Miller) and Ebony Canty (Brien Knight); Godson Joseph Williams; four grandchildren Elijah Polk, Isaiah Polk, Kaleb Miller and Imani Miller.

Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate."
