

Damien Jay Crandell

August 1, 1997 - November 23, 2025

Damien Jay Crandell was born on August 1, 1997, in Chesterfield County, South Carolina. He was the cherished son of Tricia Ann Joines, Erica Jackson (Erica), and Dantonio Vonte Crandell (NaKisha). He passed away on Sunday, November 23, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and dedication to his family and friends. Damien was educated in the Mecklenburg County public school system and graduated from Harding University High School on June 16, 2016. Damien also graduated from MMIT in Orlando, Florida. Damien was the kind of young man whose presence left an imprint on everyone he met. His heart was big, his loyalty was unwavering, and his smile had a way of softening the hardest days. He carried himself with a quiet strength - the type that didn't demand attention but naturally drew people in. Damien lived life with a fearless spirit and a heart full of adventure. He had a true love for speed - the wind on his face, the rush in his chest, and the freedom that came with riding. Whether he was on a dirt bike, a four-wheeler, or a motorcycle, that was his happy place. That was where he felt free. His passion didn't stop there. He had a deep love for snakes, geckos, and iguanas. He is lovingly remembered by his parents and his siblings Danielle Joines (Tyus Baker) of Mount Croghan, SC, Levon Joines of Monroe, NC, Brandon Crandell of Norfolk, VA, Alesa McMillan (Trae Bonds) of Charlotte, NC, Jadah Crandell, Jannai Crandell, and Jameya Crandell all of Charlotte, NC; his grandparents Bobby & Rosslyn Crandell, and Robert Jackson; his nieces Everr Edwards, Autumn Bonds, Trenity Baker, and Cali Crandell; his nephews Ethan Edwards, Yasiah Green, and Kody Joines. He is also remembered by a host of his many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Levoid Joines, Tricia Cash, and Clara Paterson. Damien Jay Crandell will be deeply missed and forever remembered as our "Wild Child."
