“ Where do I begin to express my love and sadness for a wonderful human-being. Darrell was in my Sunday School class in the youth choir and he was a cool usher. Darrell was always respectful, always happy and a quite kid. His family loved him so much he was the center of their joy. I'm so sorry for the loss of such a young man who was so full of promise. I talked to him months before he passed. He was visiting my sister (who was like a second mom to him and his friends) and he called me to say hi. I was in tears because I haven't heard that voice in years. Darrell was going to pay me a visit in the upcoming months. That was my last time hearing his kind words. I'm so sorry for the loss and I will forever cherish the moments I was able to know and love this special light. Rest in peace Darrell
