

David Johnson

December 13, 2015

David Johnson was born in 1943 in Summerton, S.C. He departed from us on Sunday, December 13, 2015 at home with his family. David was born to the parents of the late Doran and Issac Johnson.

As a young adult, he migrated to Brooklyn, NY where he pursued a career in carpet installation. While in New York, he met the love of his life and soul mate of 43 years, Maryanne Dunston. He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and uncle to say the least. From this union they had three children.

David was known to many for his interesting sense of humor and could really tell a good “very long” story. As many of you know, he was a stylish dresser, and loved wearing his hats and cowboy boots. And, as most of you know, he could fry a piece of chicken and fish like no one else.

David leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Maryanne Dunston Johnson; two daughters, Joanne Duncan (Edward), and Tracey Rivers; one son, Shamark Johnson; two granddaughters; Amber Rivers, and Nola Duncan; two grandsons, Marquel Rivers, and Nehemiah Clark; seven siblings; Thomas (Barbara), Willie (aka Booker T), West (Josephine), Dolphus (Thelma), Joe-Nathan (aka Joe), Gussie (Herbert), Evelyn (Levan), and Susan; two sisters in laws; Mary Blanding and Corine Butler, and one brother in law; Julius Hawkins, and a host of nephews, nieces, and other loving relatives and friends.
