“ All I can remember is laugh, laugh and some more laughing with you. We laughed all through band seasons and then through basketball seasons. We laughed as we all piled in my daddy's pickup truck after practices and games. We even laughed every week on the way to Stanly County for two years as we worked on our Master's. I will never forget our talks and chats. You were a great friend even through distances and time. I often think of some things we did and begin to laugh. Rest In Peace, my laughing buddy.

“ I have so many great memories of you, but I'll keep it brief. Every time we got together, we always strategized on what our next steps would be toward attaining a professional goal. In high school, you always encouraged me to work hard so that we could both get accepted in some reputable universities. In our adulthood years, you wanted us to get our doctorate degrees together, but we selected to invest all of our passions into our families instead. I will always hold you near and dear to my heart, my beautiful and sweet friend.
