

Dawn Yvette Shavuo Joseph

September 18, 1960 - January 17, 2023

Dawn Yvette Shavuo Joseph entered this life on Sunday, September 18, 1960, at Mount Sinai Hospital to Bessie Lucille Shavuo (Conners) and the late William Henry Shavuo in New York, New York. Dawn was the third and final child of the union, following older sister Anita L. Shavuo, and brother, William K. Shavuo. Dawn unexpectedly departed this life amongst her immediate family on Tuesday, January 17, 2023, at Atrium Health Cabarrus in Concord, North Carolina. Dawn attended New York City public schools and completed her high school education at Eli Whitney Vocational High School, class of June 1978 in Brooklyn, New York where she studied stenography. On Saturday, September 13, 1980, Dawn Shavuo and John Joseph commenced their marriage which produced unconditional love and a legacy. During their union, Dawn gave birth to two daughters, Shavon in July 1982 and Anita in January 1994. With much ambition and resilience, Dawn was a life learner. She worked for various companies in the mental health and health industry, particularly specializing in medical terminology. She enrolled and partially completed an associate's degree at Durham Technical Community College while living in Durham, NC. As her mother, Bessie grew older, Dawn devoted her life to becoming a full-time caregiver. During this time, Dawn's lifetime love and husband, John Joseph departed this life in October 2017. Yet, through grief and sorrow, Dawn persisted and established a legacy for her family. As an affectionate and powerful daughter, mother, and grandmother, Dawn made many memories that will never be forgotten. Dawn will lovingly be remembered by her mother, Bessie Conners, brother, William Shavuo, daughters, Shavon Joseph and Anita Gray (Johnathan Gray), grandchildren, KyjuanSmith, Kayden Mercer, Karsyn Gray and Kamryn Gray, a vast amount of nieces, nephews, and cousins, and few life-long friends that she cherished immensely.
