“ It took me this long to even be able to write this, we were stuck together since we meet @ Spaugh, finding out you were gone and months after the fact cut deep like a knife. I love you bro and I will never forget you 💕

“ I don't know where to start my name is Ashley Anthony I met Deangelo when he came up to Middletown ct to live with his children we found out we where cousins and we both where so excited because he had just moved here and didn't know any family up here and I told him I wasn't very close to the family that lived around here and he told me well that's gonna change cuz because I'm not gonna leave you alone now I know we are family LOL. We never lost touch after that day he was the most love caring person you could ever meet he called my husband big cuz because he was taller not older lol but also because he really felt like they were brothers but there are so many different stories I can share about him I wouldn't know where to start but I just wanted to say I am so so very sorry for your loss he was a good one R.I.p. D gone but never forgotten until we meet again
