

DeCarlos Tamond Wallace

April 12, 1975 - October 28, 2023

DeCarlos Tamond Wallace, born on April 12, 1975, to Raymond Tinsley and Irlene Wallace, departed from this earthly life on October 28, 2023. He was a beloved son, brother, father, grandfather, and friend who touched the lives of many. Carlos "Punkin/Jay", began his journey through life attending Olympic High School and later graduated from Empire Beauty School. His educational accomplishments were just the beginning of a life filled with creativity and passion. Carlos was renowned for his infectious personality, his unwavering love for family and friends, and his deep-rooted passion for music, known as "Candyman". From an early age, he exhibited a profound enthusiasm for entertaining, whether it was through his captivating raps, mesmerizing dance moves, or his ability to bring joy and laughter with his jokes. He had a unique gift for brightening up any room he entered. In his spare time, Carlos cherished the company of his lifelong friends from Yorkwood, where he spent many joyful moments. He also found immense joy in performing on stage alongside his son, TJ. Their shared passion for music brought them closer together, creating lasting memories and connections that will live on. Carlos was preceded in death by Helen "Nana" Tinsley (Grandmother), Irlene Wallace (Mother), Erica Wallace (Sister). Their presence in his life left an indelible mark, and their memories will forever be cherished. Carlos leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion. He is survived by his daughters, Alexius Towner (Kyle), Kamiya Sanders, and Keyia Wall, his son, Davarius "TJ" Harris (Wisdom), grandchildren, Naima Jackson, Zamora Harris, Patience Harris, Janiyah Harris, and Tahlia Towner; his father, Raymond Tinsley (Pamela), grandmother, Jessie Wallace; his niece, Brittany Oliphant, and great-niece, A 'Veya Mcphaul. In addition, he leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family members, and friends who will forever remember the joy he brought into their lives and will hold his memory close to their hearts. DeCarlos Wallace's life was a symphony of laughter, love, and music. He touched the lives of everyone he met with his infectious energy and bright spirit. While he may have departed this world, the echoes of his laughter and the rhythm of his music will continue to resonate in the hearts of all who knew him. Rest in peace, dear Carlos. You will be deeply missed and never forgotten.

“ #comeon Carlos Wallace I still can't believe I had to say Goodbye to the old you on yesterday! So many memories ill keep with me forever.. but guess what The Family threw the party of the century and people came over no one left sober... IT WAS ALL FOR YOU, IT WAS ALL FORR YOUUUU!!! I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD!! You are truly safe in his arms..

Thanks for the song selection it was no one but you
