“ The passing of Michelle was total shock, I am in totally disbelief. When I moved from Charlotte in 2013, we remained in constant contact. She gave me counseling in the passing of my son. She constantly told me, God never makes no mistake. So, I am telling you God has taken an angel. In deepest sympathy, Melinda LeBlanc-Harris Carthage, Mississippi

“ My deepest condolences to your family. What a beautiful woman, inside and out. A picture is worth a thousand words. Those beautiful pictures expressed what words could not of the type of wife, mother, and grand mother she was. Her presence will be sorely missed now and years to come. But when you are feeling low, or that whole in your heart seems to get heavier and the words leave you, please remember this beautiful scripture. Romans 8:26 says, "In like manner, the spirit also joins in with help for our weakness; for the problem is that we do not know what we should pray for as we need to, but the spirit itself pleads for us with unuttered groanings." Sometimes the only one who knows what we are going through is God, but even then we can't bring ourselves to talk to him. God knows that, he knows your thoughts, your feelings, your pain and his spirit will plead for you when you can't plead for yourself.

“ My condolences to the Hinton family. God promises that soon he will swallow up death forever and wipe away the tears from our face Isaiah 25:8. Until then, God will provide you with comfort and strength during this difficult time.
