

Donald McVay

August 31, 1947 - January 6, 2024

Donald McVay affectionately known as “Donnie” was born on August 31, 1947, in Charlotte, NC to the late Charlie Sr. and Amanda Mcvay. He peacefully passed away on January 6, 2024, in his sleep. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings Rosa Kelly, Charlie McVay Jr, William McVay, Jessie McVay Martin, Mary Moore, and Elaine Sinclair. Donnie graduated from Second Ward High School in 1966. After graduating he enlisted in the United States Army from 1967 to 1969 where he spent the majority of his time in Korea. Following his time in the Army Donnie married the love of his life and became a devoted family man while driving trucks cross country and short distances for over 20 years. Later Donnie became a tow truck driver and he ended his career in 2019. He was a shining light of humor, wit, and laughs from the heart and soul. Along with that, he did not meet a stranger. He was the kind of person who could become best friends with a stranger in a matter of minutes. Donnie's lifelong memories and love are cherished by his loving wife Linda, whom he had been married to for 54 years. Three children Donald McVay (Kima), Lisa Ivey (Charles), and Adarius McVay (Tammy) all from Charlotte, NC. Six grandchildren La’Donna McVay, Donald McVay Jr., Alisia Williams, SanQuan Ivey, Dakari Wynn, and Kamara McVay. Four great-grandchildren Jayden Taylor, Alexis Morrissey, Justin Morrissey Jr., and Adonis Ballard. And lastly, a host of loving nieces, nephews, close relatives and friends.

“ Although I didn't get to spend much time with Donnie, everytime I was around him, he was nice and easy to talk to. I will miss his presence. Thank God that I have his grandson and the rest of his family to remind me of just how good of a person he was.
