“ I am so saddened to read this. I called Durwin back around October, 2008. I had prostate cancer and his name was given me by a mutual friend, Le Moore. Durwin gave me a lot of information which I was able to use when making my treatment decision. He was a very kind man and I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I grew up with Aaron. I was surprised as I do not see too many people our age die. I knew his father, and brother Kim pretty well. I am saddened I thank Aaron for being an inspiration to me when I was younger to work harder in school and sports. I hope the best for this young family.

“ My prayers and sympathy go to the Herring Family. I attended Temple University with Durwin and we both were undergraduate students in the Mechanical Engineering Department. He was great to know. While in college he showed focus, perseverance, and strength as he studied intently and often in the Engineering Building. It was encouraging to see him busy at work and comforting to be in his presence. He always looked the same and always had a big smile (memorable) to greet you. Years after graduation, I saw Durwin as we both recruited for our companies and he had the same big smile. Thank God for the man that Durwin was and for the good and lasting impression that he left with all of us at Temple and other places. Kara Edens (Temple University, Classmate)

“ We were very saddened to hear about Durwin's passing. He was such a wonderful person to be around and connected and related to people better than anyone I know.
Our thoughts are with Chan and the boys at this unimaginably difficult time. I would just like the boys to know their father was a great man and full of life and really loved them and will be looking down on them as they grow up.
