

Ernestine Garvin Fetherson

October 12, 1944 - February 24, 2025

Mrs. Ernestine Garvin Fetherson, known to the family as Tine, was born October 12, 1944, to Jessie and Chizelle Garvin. She departed this life on Monday, February 24, 2025, at home due to an extended illness. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend. Mrs. Fetherson had a deep appreciation for good music, and the radio in the kitchen stayed on. She was the youngest in her family, but she had a big heart and was tough for five feet one inch. Mrs. Fetherson was educated in the public schools of Bowman, SC, and she retired from Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools as a school bus driver. She joined her family church, Prospect United Methodist Church, of Rowesville, SC, and made Macedonia Baptist Church, of Midland, NC, her church away from home. In 1966, she married Joseph Fetherson in Orangeburg, SC. They enjoyed their yearly beach trips and found joy in being part of their grandchildren and great-grandchildren's lives. She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, Clay, David, and Lorie, and two sisters, Justine and Helen. She leaves to cherish her memories her spouse, Joseph Fetherson; son, Kenneth Fetherson; her grandchildren, Precious Fetherson, Isaiah Walls, Kenneth Fetherson Jr., all of Charlotte, NC, and Darnitta Takeh (Keith) of Jacksonville, FL; Great grands Elija Pride and Kayden Strong of Charlotte, NC; sister Evelyn Utsey, of Orangeburg, SC; sister-in-laws Eloise Fetherson of Waxhaw, NC, and Gwendolyn Fetherson of Charlotte, NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
