I am so sorry that I won't be able to attend service on Friday but rest assure that I will be thinking of you by means of prayer on tomorrow when Edward is laid to rest. I know that this is a hard time for each and everyone of you, but just remember God makes no mistakes. He is in a better place awaiting for you all arrival to join him in his New Heavenly Home! If I can do anything for either of you, please don't hesitate to call. On behalf of Jermell and Lakedia families, they all know that your hearts are heavy, but as the Bible quotes, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning", their prayers are with you all and again if there is anything that either one of us can do for the family, please let us know.
