“ *To the Erma Harris family.
Mrs Erma It was truly a heart felt moment when you called me and said (brother) had received his wings. I pray to God that he strengthen and give the family peace that passes all understanding over you all in the time of need.
Remember we love (brother) but God love him more. Mrs Erma if its anything I can do please fell free to give me a call. You walked with me through my dark time I am here with you if need, May God blessed you all.

Ed will definitely be missed. I just found out today of his passing. We worked together at the bank for some years. He would look out for me and kept me in the know of things happening in the office (LOL). I remember once, my dad fixed his car and from that point on, he would always ask me how my parents were doing. Definitely a people person. He was always in good spirits and would make you laugh. May God's peace and grace continually be with his family. RIP.
