

Emily Peeler

February 17, 1952 - November 12, 2021

Emily Peeler, 69, of Charlotte, NC passed away on Friday, November 12, 2021. She was born in Shelby, North Carolina to the late Forest and Elizabeth Peeler on February 17, 1952.

Emily was a graduate of Burns High School in Shelby, North Carolina, Class of 1970. After attending nursing school in Washington, D.C., Emily was employed in various positions in the nursing field. Emily served as the Supervisor of Nursing Aides at the Masonic Nursing Home in Washington, D.C. until she was diagnosed with a brain aneurysm. After an extensive surgery and a long recovery period, Emily moved to Charlotte where she resided with her sister Gwendolyn (Gwen) Stokes until her demise.

Emily had a beautiful voice and she loved to sing. With her sister Mattie Ross and other friends, she visited area churches to entertain as a member of the singing group -- the Gospel Supremes. Although she led an ordinary life with a quiet spirit, the lives she touched were made brighter and her presence will be missed by all who loved her.

When her sister Gwen learned the truth about Jehovah, Gwen shared what she was learning with Emily who responded to the good news, began to study the Bible, made progress, and dedicated her life to Jehovah, serving in the Brookshire Congregation in Charlotte.

Emily was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Caleb Peeler. Those surviving to cherish her memory are her brother, James Peeler (Marie); her sisters, Carrie Ashe, Carolyn Peeler, Gwendolyn Stokes, Margaret McCluney (Thomas), and Mattie Ross, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I was Ms.Emily CNA for 4 years. She became family and we had a bond. I will remember when I would turn on music and she would sometimes sing. Often times when I would be leaving she would asked me when are you coming back? I would tell her and she would say that long. I would laugh and say Ms.Emily its just tomorrow. She would tell me tell your girls hello. I am Bless to have known Ms. Emily.
