“ So sorry to read of the death of your dear child and sister. Please accept my deepest sympathy. Death certainly cannot be a gift from God since it only brings sadness and pain. No wonder God himself calls it an enemy- 1 Corinthians 15:26. Soon we will see our loved ones again, our loving creator gives us this guarantee. Acts 24:15.

“ To the Johnson Family, I wish to offer my condolences and deepest sympathy during this difficult time. I definitely have the entire family in my prayers. Please know that God knows your hearts and there are going to be times when you need someone to call on. When the calls, texts, emails, and visits of comfort begin to cease, please just look to Jesus to give you everything that you need! God loves you and he's right there for you!!! May God continue to Bless You Deeply!

“ I met Erica during my internship at Walt Disney World Sports & Recreation (2001-2002). We worked together on the Tampa Bay Bucs Training Camp. I remember trying to model my professionalism after hers because she always "had it together". :) We shared a lot of laughs during that time and she will be missed. My heart and prayers go out the family.

“ Erica would have given any stranger the shirt off her back. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She also was an incredibly talented PR professional.
The gates of heaven certainly opened up to receive this angel. I will miss you.

“ Erica will always be a diamond to me. A source of direct wisdom.
She had the gift of bringing out the best the people she knew and worked with. I'm honored to have known such a woman. I'm honored she let me be her friend. I loved her then and still. My condolences to her family and all friends.

“ Erica was truly a wonderful friend to me and to many others. I will truly miss her big, bright, beautiful smile, her sharp wit, and constant irritation of me. She was truly one of the hardest working and most genuine people I have ever had the pleasure of meeting...I will miss that about her, too.
