“ I worked with Euretha at USF&G. I just wanted to let the family know how sorry I am to hear of her passing. She was a beautiful person and I was so happy to call her my friend.

“ Euretha Jones Leake had imagination and determination; she had big ideas and made them happen.

She was a strong-willed woman, with discipline for herself and others in her care.

She was first to her job, and often the last to leave; She outlasted many a man and woman.

She did not run away when life threw her a bad pitch, but kept swinging until she got a hit.

She was elegant in appearance, yet more than a little frugal, an excellent balance.

She was vey musical, a fine flute player, and loved to sing, with her beautiful voice.

She liked a good adventure, like skiing in falling snow.

She was always there for her Mother and her daughter.

She did many things for others, sometimes with little or no thanks.

*The world has lost a fine person, who DID make a difference,
Euretha Jones Leake.*
