

Evelyn Patterson Mack

February 8, 1951 - February 21, 2023

Evelyn Patterson Mack was born February 8, 1951 in Pineland, South Carolina to the late Arrie lee Jenkins and Arthur Patterson.

Evelyn transitioned to her eternal life on February 21, 2023 after battling a devastating illness.

Evelyn graduated from Jasper County High School and later attended Bethune Cookman College in Daytona Beach, Florida. Graduating in 1973. After graduating from school, she moved to Detroit, Michigan and married her husband Griffin Mack. During her fifty years of marriage to her husband, she lived in Detroit, Illinois and Iowa before moving to Charlotte in 1982. During her time in Illinois, she attended Eastern Illinois University and graduated, receiving her Masters Degree in Business Administration. After moving to Charlotte, she joined the Charlotte Mecklenburg Police Department as a police officer. After a period of time with the department, she pursued her passion for education and started her own private school, which she would chair for the next twenty years.

She joined Victory Christian Center in 1982 and worked as a greeter at the children's Sunday Night Bible Class.

She leaves behind devoted husband of fifty years Griffin Mack, and three children: Patrick Mack, Shakira Davis and Anthony Mack, all of Charlotte, in addition to her eight grandchildren, three great grandchildren, three older brothers and a host of nephews and nieces.

“ Evelyn was a giver and a trailblazer. Many times I referred teachers to her program. As I tried to contact her with still another idea, I learned of her passing. Such a beautiful spirit. I love you, Evelyn. To the family:"Be still and know that I am God". May she rest in peace.
