

Floyd Ross

February 18, 2014

Floyd G. Ross was born August 18, 1959 to the late Leroy Ross and Geneva Ross Johnson. He departed from this life on February 18, 2014 in Davidson, NC. Floyd “Chucky” G. Ross was educated in Detroit, Michigan where he played basketball for Pershing and Osborne High School. At the age of 17, he attended Saint Clair Community College where he studied Law Enforcement. Floyd then decided to enter into the Armed Forces, his choice being the Navy. He traveled and lived all over the United States before he decided to settle down in Davidson, NC. Floyd was employed at FXI in Cornelius, NC for over thirteen years where he also served as President of their Labor Union.

Floyd “Chucky” G. Ross was a huge sports fan. His favorite team was the Detroit Pistons and his favorite player was Isaiah Thomas. After moving to Davidson, NC, his favorite college basketball team became the UNC Tar Heels where Michael Jordan was his favorite player.

Floyd “Chucky” was known for his million dollar smile and kind spirit. His greatest passion was his family and the Lord, Jesus Christ. He touched many lives with his compassion for others. He was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church of Lake Norman in Davidson, NC where he faithfully served in ministry on the Usher Board for five years, fulfilling his assignment as a mighty man of God.

Floyd leaves to cherish many wonderful memories and his legacy will be maintained through his mother, Geneva Ross Johnson of Davidson, NC, brothers- Donnie (Beverly) Howell of Mooresville, NC; Charles (Sheila) Ross of Detroit, MI; Harold Ross of Muskegon, MI, only sister, Linda L. Ross of Davidson, NC, very special loving friend, Phyllis Henderson of Charlotte, NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
