

Frances Roberts

April 8, 1923 - April 18, 2013

Mrs. Frances P. Roberts was the ninth child born to the late Lula and Nealie Pierce on Sunday, April 8, 1923. She was educated in Charlotte, North Carolina. After her educational experience, she met and married the late Phillip M. Roberts of Virginia. Prior to her illness, Mrs. Roberts worked and retired after fifteen (15) years as a cafeteria staff member of Norfolk Public Schools in Norfolk, Virginia. Mrs. Roberts, who was greatly interested in the lives of her children, grand-children and great-grand children, looked forward to seeing them grow, change and develop in the Christian faith. She believed in living the Christian life and "If you had Jesus_you had everything you needed." Mrs. Frances P. Roberts was preceded in death by one son, Carlton M. Roberts and one daughter, Mary Thompkins. On Thursday, April 18, 2013, Mrs. Roberts quietly slipped into her eternal rest before entering her eternal home. She leaves to cherish a lifetime of loving memories to her children, Phylis Scott (Willoughby), Angela Younge (Carol), Louise Mullen (Rickey), Jacklynne Tillman (Carl), all of Charlotte, North Carolina and Mary Simmons and Mollie Gatlin (Clarence) of Norfolk Virginia; three nieces, Kiggie Mitchell, Mag Richardson and Diane Dean, all of Charlotte, North Carolina. She also leaves twenty-three grandchildren and fifteen great-grand children; her special friends, Albert, Mr. Peg, Mrs. Cherry and "Peaches" and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
