“ Hey old man, i miss you so muchh! I really do, it's hard on me till this day knowing you're gone. All the memories of you being here and being the good father u was, me calling you late mornings after you get off so u can come get me 😭 and you always did ❤️. I hate it , but everyday i keep going , just wish you were here to see how far i made it . I love you forever and ever ! ❤️👍

“ Missing you so much our brother , Frank Davis. Only God knows the pain we're feeling right now. My condolences to all whom are feeling the pain from the loss of someone who has greatly impacted and touched so many lives with his infectious smile, humbleness, caring and often very opinionated views on situations (which often he made perfect sense). You will be dearly missed by the very ones who has had the pleasure of being graced in your presence. Love, Lydia F. and the bunch!
