“ Wow!!! Clicking on your name makes it all Surreal. I would have never thought that this day would come so soon..however God Makes no Mistakes. I will forever hold a place in my heart for you. We have a our own love for one another that only we understood, and what is understood never has to be explained. I was your One and Only Daughter and will miss you dearly. I will never forget you DAD...because I have memories that will forever be embedded in my heart....from you buying me my first car, to letting me drive your cadillac and almost wrecking it thinking I knew how to drive (epic fail), to you always being Santa Claus to my kids and never missing a beat. I appreciate all of that...and will forever hold those memories close to my heart. RIP...I love you forever!!

Your Daughter,
