

George Eugene Farrar

June 9, 1968 - May 9, 2024

Mr. George Eugene Farrar “Junior” was born on June 9, 1968 to the late George Milford Farrar and Patricia Jean Broome in Charlotte, North Carolina. He gained his wings on May 9, 2024 at Novant Health Huntersville Medical Center at the age of 55. George was a graduate of West Charlotte High School and a former employee of Brown Trucking Company. Shortly after graduating from high school, George served in the Air Force as an Inventory Management Specialist. He then went on to attend truck driving school where he received his CDLs and worked as a long-distance truck driver for thirty years. George played for the Four Seasons Softball League for several years. George enjoyed fishing, gaming, spending time with family and friends, and watching sports and movies in his free time. He loved to relax in his “man cave” which was filled with UNC decor as he was a huge Tarheel fan. George could also be spotted as he traveled around Charlotte in his Dallas Cowboy decorative finished SUV. George was a cherished fiancé, father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, neighbor, and a beloved friend to many. George is survived by his fiancé Sharon Smith (Charlotte, NC); his daughters Jaylin Farrar (Charlotte, NC) and Z’Jada Harris (Stratford, CT); his sister Christy Farrar (Charlotte, NC); two nieces Dr. Shani Campbell (Charlotte, NC) and Ja’Niyah Dee (Charlotte, NC); and one nephew Derrick Williams (Charlotte, NC). He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. George was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Tiffany Leeks.
